GROUP EXERCISE INSTRUCTOR

Summary of Position: Group Exercise Instructors are responsible for creating fun, motivating, and inclusive exercise classes.

Qualifications: Certified in Group Exercise (ACE, AFAA, ACSM, etc), RYT – 200hr, or specialty certification (Cycling, Zumba, etc)
Expected Hours: 1-4 hours per week, morning, evening, weekend hours available
Rate of Pay: $10-$25/hour

Supervisor: Margaret Rodgers – Coordinator of Fitness

Duties and Responsibilities:
- Provide safe, fun, motivating class instruction to a wide variety of clientele
- Foster a warm, welcoming, energetic, and charismatic environment
- Enforce all risk management policies
- Provide assistance to class patrons when needed
- Report any maintenance concerns with equipment or spaces
- Must be able to commit to classes for an entire semester

Certifications and Trainings: Training for the ACE Primary Group Exercise certification and other specialty fitness certification are available to take throughout the academic year if not already certified.

- Must be able to attend department-wide and program specific trainings provided at the beginning of each semester
- Must maintain current certifications for first aid, CPR and AED
- Must maintain fitness certifications for class formats taught

Typical Hiring Timeline: Applications to join the Group Exercise team are accepted at any time during the year. Start date is typically the semester proceeding application submission.

About Campus Recreation: Campus Recreation at the University of New Hampshire strives to provide extraordinary recreational programs and services that enhance a healthy lifestyle for thousands of participants. UNH Campus Recreation relies upon 250 student staff members to ensure that every participant has a positive and safe experience. The goal of employment with UNH Campus Recreation is that student employees have a developmental work experience that provides staff with skills that can be carried into their professional careers.

UNH Human Resources: The University System of New Hampshire is an Equal Opportunity/Equal Access/Affirmative Action employer. The University System is committed to creating an environment that values and supports diversity and inclusiveness across our campus communities and encourages applications from qualified individuals who will help us achieve this mission. The University System prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, disability, veteran status, or marital status. Application by members of all underrepresented groups is encouraged. Hiring is contingent upon eligibility to work in the U.S.